

ST. PAULS CHAMBERS

Rukhshanda Hussain

Personal Details:

D.O.B :-	30/03/1974
Call to the Bar :-	01/09/1998
Education :-	Bury Grammar School (Girls) Liverpool John Moores University (LLB Hons) Liverpool University LLM

Languages - Urdu

Career Details

Member of St Paul's Chambers, Leeds since January 2000.
Areas of practice include, criminal law undertaking work for both prosecution and defence and a developing family practice.

Leading Cases

Operation Pancrack

National Crime Squad prosecution involving 13 defendants charged with conspiracy to supply heroin.

A few weeks after completing my pupillage I was briefed to represent the Defendant in a 10 day 'old style' committal . Junior counsel in this 3-month trial

R v Wasim Mirza

Junior Counsel in murder trial

R v Paul Bryant and others

Briefed as Junior Defence Counsel in 2-month conspiracy to supply drugs trial.

R v Daley and others (Operation Stirrup)

Junior Counsel for the Crown in the prosecution of 10 defendants on a 15 Count Indictment, Count 1 being conspiracy to supply class a drugs This case started life in January 2006 and was re-tried in January 2007. Four additional Defendants were added to the indictment before the case was re-tried and the case was both complex and time consuming in terms of preparation and issues surrounding disclosure.

R v Feroz Khan

Junior defence counsel in 'Bracken hill Park' murder, September 2007.

R v Imran Bham and others (Operation Sledge)

Junior Prosecution Counsel in a complex conspiracy to handle stolen goods and conspiracy to defraud insurance companies, November 2007-January 2008.