

ST. PAULS CHAMBERS

ROBIN MAIRS

Personal Details:

D.O.B :-	10/04/1969
Called to the Bar :-	01/10/1992
Education :-	Manchester University Hughes Hall, Cambridge

Rob Mairs is an experienced advocate with a strong practice in all areas of criminal law, specialising in serious and complex fraud, substantial restraint and confiscation proceedings. Often instructed as leading junior in large scale and complex cases. Particular skills in representing vulnerable defendants and those suffering from mental illness. Currently instructed for the defence in three murders and as leading junior in a multi million pound drug distribution and money laundering trial. Expertise also covers Police disciplinary; mental health; regulatory breach and sports law.

Recent Cases

Fraud

R-v-Eshragh

Director of a company involved in fraudulent accounting over 3 years

R-v-Layfield

Long running embezzlement by managing director of a national firm

Murder

led junior for the defence

R v Cawley

R v Johnson

R v Walker

R v Carr

R v Edge

R v Davies

Junior alone

Attempted murder

R v Hope
R v Hooper
R v Mullins

Drugs/Money laundering

Operation Aluminium leading junior for defence in a SOCA drug distribution trial
R v Lister leading junior for defence in multi million pound drug and money laundering trial, successfully ran abuse argument in confiscation proceedings

Regulatory

R v Garry Robinson leading junior in defence of Health Care manager accused of neglecting patients
R v Karl Stewart West Yorkshire Trading Standards largest counterfeit trial

Sexual offences include

R v Fisher campaign of rape and bestiality
R v Goodyear 17 year old mentally ill defendant accused of rape
R v Shelly White teacher accused of abusing a pupil received national coverage
R v Yates [2003] Crim.L.R. 903 guide line case on the use of restraining order under Sex Offenders Act 1997