- Immigration appeals (First-tier Tribunal)
- Inheritance Act advices
- Licensing applications in relation to business premises
- Personal injury claims

It is important to note that some barristers from St Pauls Chambers are incorporated as Limited entities. The clerks will provide more information about the services offered by those who are incorporated and the fee structures that apply to those barristers. If you wish to instruct a QC you should speak to the clerks to discuss the level of fees applicable as these fees are often higher because of their specialist field and experience.

Regulatory and Complaints Information

Barristers in chambers are regulated by the Bar Standards Board. You can search the Barristers' register on the Bar Standards Board's website:

<https://www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/regulatory-requirements/the-barristers-register/>. This shows (1) Whether a barrister has a current practising certificate, and (2) whether a barrister has any disciplinary findings, which are published on the Bar Standards Board's website in accordance with their policy. Alternatively, you can contact the Bar Standards Board on 02076111444 to ask about this or email contactus@barstandardsboard.org.uk

A separate sheet is enclosed which provides information about:

- Our complaints procedure;
- Any right you may have to complain to the Legal Ombudsman (LeO) – the independent body which can help you if you have complained to your lawyer and are not happy with their response;
- How to complain to the LeO; and
- Any time limits for making a complaint.

You can also search the decision data on LeO's website:

<http://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/raising-standards/data-and-decisions/ombudsman-decision-data> This shows providers which received an Ombudsman's decision in the previous 12 months, and whether LeO required the provider to give the consumer a remedy. Alternatively, you can contact LeO on 03005550333 to ask about this or email enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk

Pricing structures only apply where the deceased person's estate is worth less than £300,000. An example of the required price and service transparency can be found below.

Our barristers can provide you with written advice on whether you can make a claim under the Act. Our barristers can also provide you with written advice when a person dies and you are a beneficiary of the estate, but someone else makes a claim under the Act.

Timescales for proving a written opinion

Timescales for a written opinion may vary depending on such factors such as barristers' availability, the value and complexity of the deceased person's estate. Claims made under the Act must be made within six months of the grant of probate, so as a guide, the written advice will be completed within two to four weeks where possible.
